DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

ble, Mt. Sterling; corresponding secretary, H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; field secretary, W. J. Clarke, Sparta. Members of the Executive Committee, the John Smallwood Fund Committee were elected, J. H. McNeill, of Winchester, was chosen Kentucky member of the nominating committee of the International Convention. Barclay Meador, editor of the Christian Evangelist, of St. Louis, brought with him an interesting display of relics that had once been the personal property of Barton W. Stone, now the property of Stone's granddaughter, Mrs. A. E. Morgan, of St. Louis. These relics were placed on display for the edification of the delegates. The relics included Eld. Stone's old Bible, letters; China platters; notes for his sermons, written by himself; parts of wedding dresses of his two wives, and a heavy coin silver ladle used in his home.

The Transylvania College banquet was held at the church, at six o'clock, Wednesday night, with Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the church, presiding as toastmaster. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. M. A. Hart, of Danville. The first toast responded to was by Dr. A. R. Harmon, President of Transylvania, who was followed by Mrs. Harmon. Mrs. Alice Carr, of Hamilton College, Prof. Vernon Stauffer, of the College of the Bible, and Rev. R. H. Miller, pastor of the Independence Boulevard Christian church of Kansas City, were other speakers. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. Mark Collis, pastor of the Broadway Christian church, Lexington.

The night program was devoted to devotional exercises, led by J. J. Whitehouse, and an address by Rev. W. J. Loos, on the subject, "Ninety Years of History." The convention then adjourned to Thursday morning.

Among the visitors at the sessions of the convention yesterday was Rev. Carey E. Morgan, former pastor of the Paris church, now in charge of the First Christian church in Nashville, Tenn. No minister who ever held a charge in the Paris church had more warm friends than Rev. Morgan, whose residence in Paris was a constant benediction and blessing to the community. Rev. Mr. Morgan was given an ovation, and was kept busy acknowledging the greetings of his friends. Rev. Morgan addressed the convention, and his address was listened to with deepest interest.

The convention resumed its sessions at 8:15 o'clock yesterday morning with the conference on County Workers' Problems, led by W. J. Clarke, and the conference on Christian Endeavor Workers, led by George V. Moore. Eld. Roger T. Nooe presided at the morning sessions. The devotional exercises were held at nine o'clock. Rev. Roger T. Nooe delivered an inspiring address on the subject of "The Spirit Within The Wheels," Vice-President Milo Atkinson presiding. The following reports were made: Executive Committee, Thomas W. Floyd; Associate Superintendent, George V. Moore; Superintendent, Neal K. McGowan. This was followed by the appointment of committees for the year. A program of special music followed. Rev. R. H. Miller, pastor of the Independent Boulevard Christian church, at Kansas City, delivered the sermon. At 11:55 the convention adjourned until the afternoon session.

One of the outstanding features of the afternoon session, which began at 1:30 o'clock, was the appearance of a number of children from the Orphans' Home, who rendered in an inimitable manner a number of vocal selections. This was during the Orphans' Home Period. The children also gave recitations. J. S. Hilton, Superintendent of the Home, made a detailed statement, showing the conditions prevailing there. Rev. Clyde Darsie delivered a sermon on the subject, "Manifesting The Works of God." At 2:30 o'clock the Christian Endeavor period was held, embracing addresses by Miss Georgia Dunn, on "Flashlights On Christian Endeavor;" "Prison Christian Endeavor," by Burton L. Hoffman, and an address by H. L. Pickrell, of St. Louis, Mo. During the business session which followed many matters of great interest were disposed of, and an adjournment was taken until last night.

The delegates assembled at the evening session at 7:30 o'clock, following a banquet tendered them at 5:30. The night program embraced Devotional; Offering; addresses by Prof. W. C. Bower, on the subject, "The Next Steps in Religious Education," and one by Eld. Robt. M. Hopkins, of St. Louis, Mo., on the subject, "Our Task." Following this program and the benediction, the convention adjourned until this morning, when the principal feature of the day's program will be the visit to Cane Ridge church.

To-day will develop one of the most interesting features of the week's program, the visit of the delegates and visitors to the old Cane Ridge church. The trip will be made in automobiles furnished by the citizens of the city and county. The exercises at the old church will begin at ten o'clock, when devotional exercises will be held. Mrs. Ada Withers Harrison, of Lexington, will deliver an address on "A Retrospect," and will be followed by Rev. Dr. R. H. Miller, of Kansas City, with the subject, "Our Unfinished Task." At high noon a substantial dinner, such as only the women of Bourbon county can set, will be served on the grounds, under the auspices of the ladies of the Paris church.

Following the dinner the program of exercises will be resumed with devotional exercises. Rev. Homer W. Carpenter will speak on the subject, "Getting The Key," and Rev. A. W. Fortune, of Lexington, will follow with an address on the subject, "Barton W. Stone's Contribution to Our Movement." Addresses will be made by other speakers, and a miscellaneous program will follow. After the benediction the visitors and their hosts will return to Paris, and from there disperse to their homes.

CLOSED MONDAY

On account of holiday our store will be closed on Monday, Oct. 2. PRICE & CO.

CROWDED OVER

On account of the space accorded in this issue to the report of the Christian church convention, and a rush of late hour advertising, many interesting features intended for publication, are unavoidably crowded over. These will appear in another issue.

TOBACCO MEN VISIT BOURBON

J. B. Freeman, Van Tresse and J. H. Shandlers, all of Tennessee, members of the Burley Co-operative Tobacco Marketing Association, of that State, were in Paris and Bourbon county this week, accompanied by John L. Buckley, of Lexington. They are members of a visiting delegation of Tennessee tobacco men, who are making a tour of the Bluegrass section, and investigating conditions in the tobacco business. They are also making an investigation for the purpose of determining whether or not to turn over their contracts, representing seventy-five per cent. of the crop in their territory, to the Co-operative Association.

The delegation, on their return to Tennessee, will report to the growers of Burley in Tennessee the result of their researches.

APPEAL TO AUTO OWNERS

About three hundred automobiles will be needed for the purpose of transporting delegates and visitors to Cane Ridge to-day. Will you volunteer the use of your car? Communicate with Harold F. Harris, Secretary of the Paris Commercial Club, Jos. D. Booth, L. D. Redmon, Ayelette Buckner or Hiram Roseberry. Cars will form in line on both sides of High street, facing north; lead cars at Eighth street. Please assemble not later than 8:30 a. m.

FORMER BOURBON MAN PROSPERING

(Contributed)
Mr. Will Lane, son of W. R. Lane, formerly of Winchester, Ky., and Virginia, was recently appointed City Manager of Phoenix, Arizona, by the Democratic party. Mr. Lane was unable to accept the position, as he had thrown his hat in the ring as a candidate for the position of State Engineer. Mr. Lane has been boosted for Governor of Arizona. He is a young man of unusual ability and merit, and a civil engineer of note, receiving contracts that have mounted up into the millions.

Mr. Lane is a brother of Miss Mary Lane, who has frequently visited Paris, and has been greatly admired for her beauty and personality.

TO SOME MEN

The selection of a hat is a great adventure—our $5 hats remove every element of chance.

BURGLARS VISIT STORES

Burglars paid a visit to the hardware store of Ford & Co., on Main street, and secured knives, cart-ridges and other stock, amounting to about $300. They first paid a visit to the commission house of R. B. Hutchcraft & Co., on Pleasant street, where they secured a hatchet and a number of heavy sacks. Entrance to the Ford place was made by breaking a glass in a window of the second story and releasing a catch. The police were notified.
